STEWARDSHIP MOMENT generous giving
ONE DAY—WHEN WE ALL GET TO HEAVEN worship team
INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION open to all
Siblings in Christ, join me today at this table for a feast belonging to Jesus the Christ. Siblings in Christ, join me today for a feast which will comfort our souls. Siblings in Christ, our hearts are heavier, our pews are lighter, and our homes quieter, as we say goodbye to friends and family members of our past. Siblings in Christ, join me in shared sacrament knowing that in this time, we will grow closer to God, neighbor, and self.
PRAYER OF HUMBLE CONFESSION in unison
In every age, O Lord, You have raised up women and men of faith. Yet we have oftentimes remained aloof, desiring the comfort of apathy. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we do not. We are unsure and settle into our fears. In your mercy, forgive us.
WHITER THAN SNOW worship anthem
LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE responsively
Leader: God, we remember those Saints who have gone before us;
All: We lament their passing, and honor their legacy.
Leader: For those who followed the way of Christ faithfully,
All: We give thanks for the lessons learned.
Leader: For those who lived life simply and quietly,
All: We would follow in their example.
Leader: For those who were martyred for their faith,
All: We commend them to your care.
Leader: They have finished their work on earth,
All: And yet it still lives on.

FOR ALL THE SAINTS (UMH #711, vs. 1)

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. **I SING A SONG OF THE SAINTS OF GOD* (UMH #712) softly sung

I sing a song of the saints of God, patient and brave and true, who toiled and fought and lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew. And one was a doctor, and one was a queen, and one was a shepherdess on the green; they were all of them saints of God, and I mean, God helping, to be one too.

They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and his love made them stong; and they followed the right for Jesus' sake the whole of their good lives long. And one was a soldier, and one was a priest, and one was slain by a fierce wild beast; and there's not any reason, no, not the least, why I shouldn't be one too.

They lived not only in ages past; there are hundreds of thousands still. The world is bright with the joyous saints who love to do Jesus' will. You can meet them in school, on the street, in the store, in church, by the sea, in the house next door; they are saints of God, whether rich or poor, and I mean to be one too.

**BLEST BE THE TIE THAT BINDS* (UMH #557) softly sung

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love; the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne we pour our ardent prayers; our fears, our hopes, our aims are one, our comforts and our cares.

We share each other's woes, our mutual burdens bear; and often for each other flows the sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part, it gives us inward pain; but we shall still be joined in heart, and hope to meet again.
