

SNOW POLICY

The condition of roads, sidewalks and driveways can be dramatically different even within short distances. We therefore recommend individual consideration as to the safety of getting out to worship. We will not cancel services due to winter weather (snowy and icy) conditions. It is imperative that each person decide themselves whether coming out is the wise decision personally.