“A Wish Come True”

Delight thyself in the Lord; and He shall give you the desires of your heart. —Psalm 37:4

I guess many of us have long been fascinated with making wishes. From our youngest days we are provided any number of ways in which one can make a wish come true. I tried to think of a few of theses, and decided to “google” a list of ways. Here’s some of my findings . . . .

- Birthday candles (blow out all candles in one breath)
- Star at night (some say any star, others say only a shooting star)
- Wishing well (tossing in a penny and wishing before it hits the water)
- Blowing dandelions (close eyes and blow all white stuff off in one breath)
- Eyelash falls out (place eyelash on the back of hand, close eyes and blow)
- Pinkie wishes (say same thing at same time as another, then lock pinkies)
- Turkey wishbone (dry out the bone, pull to see who gets their wish)

I saw a few other things listed that I had never heard of for making wishes. Can you add one or two to my list from your childhood (or do you know a variation of one I’ve listed)? Whichever is your preferred manner, somebody get busy and wish this agonizing Covid-19 stuff away!

Of course, I’m not certain that God is beholden to a wish called upon by a star, penny or candle. I do know that God has hopes for us—more than that, plans even! Jeremiah 29:11 reveals this as fact and I count it as true. God wants fulfillment for each of us. That’s more than mere happiness.

The Psalmist affirms that having an abiding relationship with God is all we need in life. “The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.” This awful virus is not the only pandemic thing around—so is God’s love! It is everywhere and for all people. Now that’s something to celebrate any time.

For this reason, I prefer to dwell on the first part of Psalm 37:4. Because our loving God is so good, we are able to immerse ourselves in His glory. We can choose to take delight in the Lord, whether we feel things are always going our way or not (spoiler: they won’t).

Taking delight in the Lord is an action born of choice. It means we find in God everything that we may need to find lasting joy and fulfillment. It is to run out in a rainstorm and become thoroughly drenched (but with the Spirit). We are saturated with God’s glory and presence, and that means we are lifted up beyond life’s mundane ways.

I’m not saying don’t look for a few dandelions here and there to blow! I am just saying, wishing this virus away (as well as the other struggles we have) will not solve the problem. Committing our way to the Lord will. Take some time this week to delight in the Lord and see if things don’t look up some!

Working together with you to build the Kingdom of God until Jesus returns .... Bro. Bob

In-House Worship Suspended

Bishop Fairley sent out an email on July 23rd, requesting adherence to Governor Beshear's request to suspend "in-house" worship for two weeks, which would be the last Sunday in July and the first Sunday in August. We are complying with the request and not having "in-house" worship, but posting video worship services for those two Sundays. Please understand that the times in which we're living creates a very fluid situation for rules on gatherings, and as always, safety is first. Look for the videos on YouTube at Jeffersontown Worship, and hopefully we can plan to have our service again in the sanctuary August 9th at 10:00 AM. If you have any questions or concerns, please call Bro. Bob on his cell phone at (502) 819-1160.

Worship and Music Ministry

In thinking about what to share this month I decided to look for something fresh, from outside our box. It seems to me that we can easily get stuck in a rut, even in our unusual times of mixing smaller worship presentations with online worship. Will we get back to full pews, with choir, praise team and bell choir? Literally Lord knows when! From this writer below you will see his top 5 favorite examples of worship. Notice how few characters are involved in each of these Biblical stories.

Today's guest post is from Tom Curley. Tom is the Christian Arts Pastor and Lead Worshipper at Northridge Church in Pensacola, FL

As I read the Bible, I am amazed at the different ways that people have expressed their worship to God. In most churches, worship is usually expressed in singing accompanied by instruments. As a worship leader and musician, I began to search the scriptures for amazing expressions of worship that fit this definition of worship.

One good example would be the dedication of the temple as recorded in 2 Chronicles 7:1-6. With huge choirs singing, the Levites playing their instruments, and the priests playing their trumpets, surely this must be the greatest worship service in the Bible. But after more consideration, it did not even make my top 5.

The following are my picks for the 5 greatest expressions of worship in the Bible.

5. Paul and Silas Singing In The Prison: Acts 16:24-26-Surprisingly, this is my only choice that includes singing. However, this is no ordinary song service. Considering that this duet was coming from two men who were beaten, bruised, and in shackles, their worship was pure, heartfelt, and honest. This song caught heaven's attention and when God started tapping his foot to the music, amazing things happened. When we are faced with trials and hardships, let's remember that Satan may buffet our bodies but he can't imprison our praise!

4. The Woman With The Alabaster Box: Luke 7:36-50-Some of the greatest worship can come from the most unlikely source. This woman was an outcast who had been used and abused. But something about the words and actions of Jesus caused her to bring her most valuable possession and pour it out in an expression of love and worship. In one moment, she pressed through fear, prejudices, shame, and created one of the most intimate moments of worship in the Bible. When man's opinion has declared us "guilty", there is One who can be touched by our worship and forgive our sins!

3. The Widow's Mite: Mark 12:41-44-This simple act of giving an offering in the temple caught the attention of our Lord. It wasn't how much she gave, but, rather, how much it cost her personally that moved Jesus to say, "She gave more than anyone else." What moved this woman to give everything she had to God remains a mystery, but what is clear is that God considers our giving an act of worship.

2. Abraham's Willingness to Sacrifice His Son, Isaac: Genesis 22:12-14-This act of worship ranks second in my list even though there were no instruments, singing, lighting, or sound system involved.

Abraham pleased the Lord, and went on to change the world, because of obedience. Obedience is something we usually only mention to small children or when referencing our pet's training. However, obedience, in the eyes of God, is even greater than any sacrifice or gift we could give Him. It may be that our own greatest act of worship may not happen on Sunday morning but on Thursday afternoon, when God whispers to us, "Tell the cashier who's ringing up your groceries that I love her". God grant us the grace to begin obeying the promptings of the Holy Spirit. In obedience, we will reach new heights in our worship experiences.

1. Jesus' Surrender to God's Will: Luke 22:41-43-On the evening of his arrest, Jesus prayed for another option, if possible, than the cross. But then, he uttered the most amazing worship statement ever known when he said, "Not my will, but yours". This statement of complete and total surrender from the lips of my precious Savior humbles me and makes me love Him even more. Yes, I will keep singing songs of praise and playing music on instruments but I also hope that I can begin to step into the deeper realms of worship that are found in giving, sacrifice, and surrender.
